

BORAH, WORLD COURT FOE, NOW IN WISCONSIN

DENOUNCES COURT AS DOMINATED BY 5 GREAT NATIONS

CALLS ON PEOPLE TO PROTEST ENTRY OF U. S. IN THE WORLD COURT
REFERS TO WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS AND VERSAILLES TREATY

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 24.—(UP)—Denouncing the world court as a tribunal dominated by five great nations of Europe, Senator William E. Borah, Idaho, in an address here last night continued his campaign "to carry the world court fight to the people."

Speaking before a large crowd under the auspices of the Steuben society, Senator Borah called on the people to protest the entry of the United States in the world court.

He opened his address by making mention of two documents, Washington's farewell address and the Versailles treaty.

"Washington in his farewell address stated that the United States should not leave our land to stand on foreign ground and that we must refrain from forming a political alliance with any power," Senator Borah said.

"I am now engaged in a fight to maintain the doctrine laid down by Washington. The campaign is already in progress. The first step has already been taken and lost and the second battle will be lost unless the great American people arouse themselves and take up the battle."

SEN. LENROOT DESCRIBES U. S. COURT OBLIGATIONS

Madison, Wis., Feb. 24.—The only obligation the United States assumed in becoming a member of the world court is the payment yearly of $35,000 for the cost of maintaining the court, Senator Irvine L. Lenroot told a mixed audience of 1,500 students and townspeople last night in an appearance under the auspices of the forensic board of the University of Wisconsin.

Lenroot's speech was mainly a repetition of the talk he delivered in Janesville Monday night at a banquet in observance of Washington's birthday.

The history of the world court, which, he said, was proposed 27 years ago under the administration of President McKinley, and a brief review of the legislative procedure under which the country became a member of the court were the main points of his address.

The subject of our foreign relations, he said, must be considered solely from the standpoint of our public welfare.

"America recognized its responsibilities to civilization. It is willing to co-operate with other nations for peace and better understandings, but it will not incur any obligations by which any of its independence or freedom of action is surrendered to any other nation or group of nations, call it whatever you will."

BORAH AND LENROOT ASKED TO DEBATE

Madison, Wis., Feb. 24.—Senator William E. Borah, bitter foe of the world court, who spoke in Milwaukee last night, in his campaign to "carry the world court fight to the people," and Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin, administration leader in the recent successful fight for United States participation in the world court, will meet in debate on the issue before the student body of the West Division high school of Milwaukee, if Senator Borah accepts the school's invitation as Senator Lenroot announced today he had.

Senator Lenroot received the request from Milwaukee here Tuesday night and immediately telegraphed his acceptance.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 24.—Senators William E. Borah, Idaho, and Irvine L. Lenroot, Wisconsin, have been invited by the civics classes of West Division High School to debate upon the world court, Professor Ray McCrory told the United Press today.

Telegrams were sent each of the senators last night inviting them to speak before the high school students of Milwaukee on the world court, but according to Professor McCrory no reply had been received. The senators were invited to speak any time they find convenient.

BRITISH COMMONS SAYS "HEAR, HEAR" ON MORAL TURPITUDE

London, Feb. 24.—(UP)—A suggestion that Americans guilty of moral turpitude be treated here as Countess Cathcart has been treated in America brought cheers in the house of commons today.

At the same time it was revealed that the British ambassador at Washington has been asked to report on the alleged bombardment of the British steamer Eastwood by an American coastguard cutter.

ALL BUT TEN OF 50 SUSPECTS ARE RELEASED

ROUNDUP MADE IN ST. PAUL AFTER MURDER OF TWO POLICEMEN

CHIEF MURKANE ADMITS NO TANGIBLE CLUES FOUND

St. Paul, Feb. 24.—(UP)—All but ten of 50 suspects rounded up in the Twin Cities yesterday following the murder of two policemen, were released today and Chief of Police E. J. Murnane admitted no tangible clue to the identity of the slayers had been found.

The automobile found late yesterday, thought to have been abandoned by the murderers, proved to belong to A. W. Bearline, Eau Claire, Wis., head of a bus company, operating between Eau Claire and St. Paul. It had been left parked by the owner and answered the description of the roadster used by the gunmen.

A telephone call to John Schultz, one of the slain patrolmen, the day before the murder, in which he was heard to make an appointment to meet someone at 4 A. M., a half hour before the crime was committed, is believed to have important bearing on the mystery. Attempts are being made to trace the call.

Two theories were advanced by police. The first was that Schultz and Fred A. Peitsch, the other victim, recognized criminals wanted by police and were shot by the gunmen to avoid capture. The other was that the slayers were liquor law violators whose business was too well known by the officers and that the shots were fired on the theory that "dead men tell no tales."

The ten still held by the police for questioning will be quizzed again today. Belief was expressed around headquarters that some of them know more about the slayings than they have admitted. Meanwhile the middle west is being hunted for trace of the killers.

Believing the murderers are still hiding in the Twin Cities, police continued their search. Sleepless and unshaven squads continued their hunt through underworld haunts. Almost the entire force in St. Paul has been on duty continuously since the shooting. Police are working under shoot to kill orders.

Meanwhile funeral arrangements for the murdered officers were completed. Services for Schultz will be held tomorrow morning and for Peitsch in the afternoon. A police guard of honor will attend both services.

The city council passed a resolution today offering a $1,000 reward to any person giving information leading to capture of the killers. Police believe the offer will bring valuable information.

Chairman Smoot of the senate finance committee, because of the urgency of notifying taxpayers of the reductions for March 15 payments intended to ask unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

MARTIN DURKIN, "SHOOTING SHEIK," LOSES FIRST GIRL

BETTY WERNER, CITY SWEETHEART, WAS JILTED BY HIM

NOW LINES UP WITH STATE IN PROSECUTION OF MURDER CASE

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(UP)—Martin Durkin, Chicago's "shooting sheik," has lost the affection of Betty Werner, the city sweetheart, whom he jilted to marry Irma Sullivan.

Betty, who, at first said she would forgive Martin for his unfaithfulness and would testify in his defense, changed her mind and has lined up with the state in the prosecution. This was first definitely revealed when she testified against Durkin's mother, Mrs. Harriet Durkin, who, with another woman, is accused of receiving fur coats stolen by Martin in Hollywood.

Betty said she accompanied Durkin to the express office when he called for nine fur coats he had stolen from Mrs. Vivian Barron's fur shop in Hollywood and had shipped them ahead to Chicago. He distributed them among his "lady friends" including his mother and girl acquaintances.

INDEPENDENT VOTERS OF N. D. DRAFT PLATFORM

ENDORSE TICKET AT DEVILS LAKE FOR JUNE PRIMARY ELECTION

FUSION BETWEEN VARIOUS FACTIONS AND PARTIES IS EXPECTED

Devils Lake, N. D., Feb. 24.—The independent voters' association met here today to draft a state platform and endorse a ticket to be supported in primary elections next June.

L. L. Twitchell, Fargo, is presiding at the convention of delegates chosen at county meetings. A fusion between various factions and parties in the state opposed to the Nonpartisan league, is expected to result from this week's meetings to defeat national candidates of the league.

Today's meeting will concern itself with state politics. Barnes county is expected to present State Senator Frank Ployhar, Valley City; Morton county, Major J. M. Hanley, Mandan; and Sheridan county, J. E. Davis, Goodrich, for governor. The endorsee will oppose Governor A. G. Sorlie, Nonpartisan incumbent, at the republican primaries.

Yesterday the democratic state central committee decided upon a fusion with republicans. Democrats seeking office will run in the republican primaries. Tomorrow administration republicans will hold their convention to select candidates to oppose Gerald P. Nye, senator appointed by Governor Sorlie, and other Nonpartisan congressional aspirants.

"I am not a fascist and I am not an anti-fascist. I am just an Italian," Gigli said.

ANTHONY BIMBA, BOYISH EDITOR, GOES ON TRIAL

CHARGED WITH VIOLATING 229 YEAR OLD BLASPHEMY LAW

BIMBA HAD SAID THAT MAN HAD MADE GOD

Brocton, Mass., Feb. 24.—(UP)—Anthony Bimba, the boyish looking editor from Brooklyn, who believes man made God, went on trial here today charged with violation of Massachusetts' 229 year old blasphemy law.

Only once before in the last two centuries has the old blue law statute served as the basis for a court case in this commonwealth. "It was not God that made man, but man that made God," Bimba told his supporters at a mass meeting here on the eve of his trial.

"Read the history of religions," he said, "and you will find that there were many Gods and every one of them was worshipped by the faithful once; everyone of them was declared to be a real and mighty God and all of them have been overthrown by science and experience and in their place new Gods have been established and today there are as many Gods as there are religions."

Bimba had been expected to avoid the issues which brought about his arrest and his remarks, made in English, instead of his native Lithuanian, came as a surprise.

The public was barred from the trial today. Attorney Harry Hoffman, chief defense counsel, immediately moved that both the blasphemy charge and the sedition charge, which also stands against Bimba, be quashed. Judge C. Carroll King denied the motion.

In arguing his motion, Attorney Hoffman made frequent references to the case of Abner Kneeland, who, in the early 19th century, was convicted of infraction of the blasphemy law.

"When the blasphemy law was passed," Hoffman said, "conditions were entirely different from what they are today. At that time everybody believed in religion. Everybody believed in God. Because of this it was a crime to blaspheme."

"Things are different today. People have more liberal views." The first witness called by the government was Anthony W. Eudaco, the principal complainant, who was asked to repeat some of the alleged blasphemous remarks made by the defendant in an address before five Lithuanian societies here January 29.

Eudaco's version of the Bimba speech follows:

"There are some fools today who believe in God. They tell you Christ was a God. Communists are better than God. Christ was afraid to die. Communists are not afraid to die. Priests tell you a man has a soul, but it is in my shoe."

"We have been praying for 2,000 years and have got nothing. What we get we will get through swords. American workers suffer as much as European workers. The time is coming when workers will organize in strong force for revolution."

A few shots were fired over the heads of the crowds, who had gathered in protest against the newest move in the state campaign against foreign church influence.

The United Press correspondent, an eye witness of the incident, saw mounted police and gendarmes push the crowds back while soldiers with drawn revolvers aided.

The crowd did not resist and except for a few stragglers was soon out of the section around the church.

STILLMAN MAKES SETTLEMENT UPON JAY WARD LEEDS

LATTER IS HIS SON BY ACTRESS, FLORENCE LEEDS

DISPOSES OF THE OTHER WOMAN IN MARITAL DRAMA

(Copyright, 1926, by United Press) New York, Feb. 24.—James A. Stillman has made a handsome settlement upon Jay Ward Leeds, his son by Florence Leeds.

This step, taken prior to the reconciliation of the millionaire banker and his wife, disposes of the "other woman" in the sensational marital drama, the skeins of which now have been untangled until all parties rest content.

Announcement of the settlement, which establishes a trust fund of $20,000 a year for the youngster, the principal (from $100,000 to $150,000) to revert to the boy when he becomes of age, was announced by William M. Sullivan, personal attorney for Stillman.

And to make the "happy ending" more complete, Mrs. Leeds, in an interview announced that she will sail soon for Paris, where she will marry a prominent New York business man, whose identity is as yet undivulged. The wedding is set for June.

Sullivan revealed that the settlement was made secretly last November, when payments began. Announcement was made at the instance of Sullivan himself, so that "false rumors concerning Mrs. Leeds' might be silenced."

"I was appointed trustee and guardian for the boy and I intend to see to it that he is offered every advantage and opportunity a youngster could have," Sullivan said.

The attorney said Stillman made the settlement entirely upon his own initiative. Mrs. Leeds returned to Florida last night after a short visit here. Her next trip to New York will prestage the voyage to Europe.

"My plans for my boy have never changed," she said before leaving. "He has always been under my supervision and always will be. All the world's millions, a marriage license or a church ceremony could never make me part with him."

Stillman, she said, was a "mentally sick man" and she hoped Mrs. Stillman could cure his "fear complex."

"Some months ago," said Mrs. Leeds, "I advised Mr. Stillman to eliminate the 'fear complex' for there is nothing so pauperizing."

"While I do not know the first thing about psychoanalysis, Mrs. Stillman's efforts along these lines, I am sure, will be successful."

"I hope that the announcement of this settlement will bring an end to the persecution by the newspapers. I am weary of the spotlight. Now that there is no longer a 'Stillman case' let there no longer be an 'other woman.'"

The actual terms of the settlement were supplied by Mrs. Leeds herself, Sullivan refraining "out of tact" from disclosing them. The sum is substantially what Jay would have received under the will of his grandfather, James Stillman, had he been a legal heir.

Sullivan recently settled the lawsuit for expense and back wages brought by Fred Beauvais, Indian guide, who figured as the correspondent in an unsuccessful divorce suit brought by the banker.

ABOUT 200 FARMERS AND WIVES PRESENT

ANIMATED INTEREST SHOWN IN MANY QUESTIONS ASKED

SPEAKERS ARE F. W. WHITE, OF LYON COUNTY, AND E. W. SMITH, PARKERS PRAIRIE

Practical farm subjects were the chief items taken up at the farmers' institute at the Chamber of Commerce rooms yesterday, attended by about 200 farmers and their wives. Subjects that touched the lives of those attending the institute were what the farmers wanted discussed, as evidenced by their animated interest in asking questions regarding their problems.

F. W. White, of Lyon county, spoke on the dairy and hog feeding problem, while E. W. Smith, of Parkers Prairie, addressed the farmers and answered their questions regarding interest in sheep, alfalfa hay and sweet clover, as well as the seed corn situation in the state.

Those attending the institute received copies of the 1925 annual of the Minnesota Farmers' Institute No. 38, on "Farm Poultry." This is a 160 page book treating on poultry from every angle, with special articles by such men as Dean W. C. Coffey, of the University of Minnesota College of Agriculture, Dr. Wm. A. Riley, of the University Biology department, and A. T. Hovstad, of the University.

Some of the subjects discussed in the annual are finances of poultry raising, selection of breeding stock, artificial incubation, feeds, building up a laying stock, poultry diseases and mites, marketing of poultry products, fattening of cockerels and turkey raising.

Culling Out Boarder Cows

F. W. White said in part, during his part of the discussion: "Certain cows do not respond to proper feeding. They do not inherit from their ancestors the ability to give milk. Such cows are a loss to the herd and should be culled out."

Mr. White has had considerable experience with cow-testing associations. In Lyon county, he is one of a group of 26 farmers who employ an experienced man to take the tests. This man spends one day per month with each farmer, weighing the milk from each cow, computing the value of the cow's production from the butter fat test of her milk. In Lyon county the cost for each farmer is $3 per month. The farmer can learn which of his cows are profitable.

"This, however, is but one part of the work of the cow testing association. The expert also weighs the amount of feed each cow receives, charges the price of the feed up to her at prevailing market prices for the month, and thereby shows whether she pays for her keep."

According to Mr. White, the U. S. government furnishes record books for each farmer, so the farmer may keep an individual record of each cow, throughout the year.

"A balanced ration is a necessary thing for a good dairy herd, with a nutritive ratio of 1 part protein to 7.3 parts of carbohydrates."

"The chief fault in most feeding is that the ration contains too much carbohydrates and lacks protein. Feeding of leguminous feeds, like alfalfa and other clover, aids in correcting this fault."

Mr. White called the attention of those present to a record of one farm in this state, where the net return per cow jumped from $26.26 in 1921 to $55.19 in 1924, merely through proper feeding, without any culling of the herd. This herd was not in a cow testing association. The average butterfat production per cow increased from 202 lbs. in 1921 to 285 in 1924. The cost of production for butterfat decreased from 35 cents per lb. in 1921 to 29 cents in 1924. "With a proper culling out of unprofitable cows, the profit on the herd could still be materially increased," asserted Mr. White.

He continued, "The profit in a dairy herd lies in feeding the cows a proper and suitable ration that is cheap rather than expensive. Succulent feeds, such as roots or silage, are necessary."

His closing injunction was, "Make the conditions throughout the year as (Continued on page 5)

WALTON LEAGUE
FAVORS SPEARING

Brainerd Chapter Goes on Record as Favoring Extension of Season 1 Month

ALL OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Large Number Turns Out For Meeting, Hears Annual Reports of Work Done

The Izaak Walton league, Brainerd chapter No. 33, went on record at the annual meeting of the chapter last night at the Chamber of Commerce as favoring the extension of the winter spearing season one month beyond the present season.

The season now lasts through December and January, and the local group would have it continue through February. A resolution to this effect will be sent to the state fish and game department.

Arguments advanced for this action were that as compared with summer fishing, the fish taken through the ice are small in number, comparatively speaking, and that the winter sport affords pleasure to many men who are unable to get away for the summer fishing.

All officers and directors of the local chapter were re-elected, including Henry I. Cohen, president, W. E. Paul, secretary, Clyde E. Parker, treasurer, and the following directors, Geo. E. Lowe, chairman, A. Gieriet, W. R. Hiller, Dr. J. A. Thabes, and J. F. Cibuzar.

The annual reports of the secretary and of the treasurer were heard and approved. The president, Mr. Cohen, reviewed the work of the league during the last year.

All members present signed up for membership for the coming year. It is expected that all members of the chapter will continue their membership, and a number of new ones added to the roll.

Most of the morning session was given over to informative discussion. J. A. Rickert, of the federal intermediate credit bank, was the principal speaker at the afternoon meeting. Six hundred officials of farm loan associations of the two states are attending the conference.

"CITIZENS IN THE MAKING"

Topic of Mrs. Sumner McKnight's Address in Brainerd

ON TUESDAY, MARCH 2ND

Will Talk at Dinner Served by Young Peoples Department, M. E. Sunday School

Mrs. Sumner McKnight, who will be in Brainerd under the auspices of the League of Women Voters on March second, will speak on the subject: "Citizens in the Making."

Mrs. McKnight has recently returned from New York, where she consulted with national officers in regard to arrangements for the national convention of the League of Women Voters in St. Louis, in April. The importance of young voters will be stressed at this convention.

Mrs. McKnight's speech in Brainerd will be an after dinner speech—the dinner to be served by the Young Peoples department of the Methodist Sunday school in the basement of the Methodist church. It is hoped that the dinner can be served promptly at 6 o'clock so as to allow for a spirited community sing before the talk.

When Mrs. McKnight came to Brainerd two years ago, there was such a demand for tickets the day of the dinner that the committee spent hours at the telephone trying to buy tickets from those who had bought them merely to help out a weary ticket-seller, and re-sell them to people who were anxious to hear Mrs. McKnight and come under the spell of her charm.

This year, the ticket-sellers are so numerous that it will be almost impossible to accommodate the late-comers. So buy your tickets early for there will probably be no tickets to buy on March second. This notice will probably not prevent habitual procrastinators from following their usual practice, but it will enable the committee to say: "I told you so." Only two hundred people can be seated, and only two hundred tickets will be sold.

The occasion will be a festive one, as the young people are sparing no pains to make it so. Good eats, flowers, music, pretty decorations, youthful waiters and waitresses, and a fascinating speaker will all combine to insure a good time.

A few more tickets can be obtained by telephoning Mrs. W. C. Cobb, 708-J, or Lawrence Erickson, 873-J.

AFTER SANATORIUM CARE

(Contributed)

The care and treatment of cases of pulmonary tuberculosis after their discharge from an institution is one of the most important factors in the fight against the disease. Therefore, it should be given much thought and consideration. Discharged patients should have as careful observation, if possible, as they had while in the institution for some time after discharge.

One of the best ways to keep in touch with a patient after his or her discharge from the institution is to have a "follow up" nurse who is engaged to look after discharged cases and to keep up the records as nearly as possible of their weight, temperature and pulse, and to see that they come in at least every two months as long as the physician deems necessary for re-examination. This "follow up" nurse should be specially trained in tuberculosis nursing, must have tact and ability to retain the confidence of the discharged patient and invite co-operation. She should visit her patients regularly insisting on regular rest and exercise periods, the proper food, and regular retiring hour. In other words, to carry out as nearly as possible the routine maintained at the sanatorium. She should report any rise of temperature or loss of weight immediately to the physician in charge so that steps can be taken to readmit him to the sanatorium if advisable.

What Brainerd Folks Think About
Blood's Paint

Mr. W. C. M.—I have used several grades of paint in the last five years but I found that Blood's paint was the cheapest to use. It goes further.

Mr. W. W. W.—I painted my house with Blood's paint about fifteen years ago and today it looks as good as many other homes that were painted three or four years ago.

Mr. A. J.—Sure I am going to use Blood's paint again this year. I have never found a paint that stands up so well on my Cottages and Boats as Blood's Out Side White Paint.

Mr. L. M.—My neighbor and I have the same size houses. He used six gallons of cheaper paint on his house. I used only four gallons of Blood's paint on my house. Although I paid more per gallon, he paid several dollars more for his job.

BOY SCOUT WORK PLANNED FOR YEAR

Round Table Meeting For Scoutmasters Thursday as First Monthly Meeting

CAMP PERIODS DRAWN

Prize Camp Held in August For Five Best Campers From Each of Other Camps

The plans of the Boy Scouts for this district are rapidly assuming large and well-defined proportions, with the announcement of Scout Executive Newton that camping periods for the summer have been drawn, and a school for scoutmasters is being started this week.

The scoutmasters, 11 in all, of this city will meet Thursday night for the first of a series of round table discussions. The meeting will be held at the scout offices in the court house, and will be under the leadership of Mr. Newton. Several new scoutmasters have taken charge of troops in the city, and the meetings will be in the nature of a training class for them, as well as for the older men. These meetings will be held once a month.

Mr. Newton went to Staples last evening to inspect the troop there, and to see the basketball game between the Staples troop and the Wadena troop.

Several highly interesting events will be on the boards for the summer camp plans, if plans already made are an indication. Chief among the many features will be the Sea Scout cruise of 150 miles up the Mississippi river, and the Prize camp for the best campers of the other periods.

The Sea Scout cruise will be made in two navy cutters being brought to Brainerd this week from Crosby, and which will be put in condition for the cruise this spring. Each boat is capable of carrying as high as 30 people, and each is propelled by four pairs of oars. The cruise will take place from August 2 to 14.

The Prize camp will be for five campers from each of the other periods, the five who are adjudged to have made the greatest advance in campcraft, nature study, hiking, swimming and other things while at camp.

This camp will be held from Aug.

18 to 25, and the site will be a 64 acre tract near the Indian village on Mille Laes lake, the boys being housed in two new log cabins.

The invitation to hold the camp at that place was extended by Harry Ayers, of the trading post, coupled with an invitation for the boys to join in a big Indian dance and powwow at that time. Mr. Ayers will furnish boats and motors for lake travel, and the camp is sure to prove a real treat for the boys attending, and one well worth working for by all campers.

The camp periods and their costs, as outlined so far, are these:

First period, 12 days—June 14 to 26, $6.00.

Second period, 12 days—June 28 to July 10, $6.00.

Third period, 7 days—July 11 to 18, $3.50.

Fourth period, 7 days—July 18 to 25, $3.50.

Fifth period—12 day cruise by Sea Scouts up the Mississippi, Aug. 2 to 14.

Sixth period, 7 days—Prize camp at Mille Laes lake, Aug. 18 to 25.

WHY GIVE AWAY SPACE?

THE newspaper publisher who gives away space in his paper is giving away the only commodity he possesses. In looking through exchanges that come to our desk, it is very noticeable that many of them are either short on plate, do not pay attention to what plate matter is offered them free, do not care what appears in their columns or else are so flush that they can afford to give away the only stock in trade they have, namely space, says Ansgar Andersen, editor of the Pine River Sentinel-Blaze.

Every week Ansgar's waste basket is filled with material from large concerns seeking free space and who are glad to supply plates free if he will publish them. He then mentions a number of them, but we hate to repeat the list as we would be giving these so-called space grabbers further publicity.

All of them, says Ansgar, are large companies that can well afford to pay for their advertising, but they seem to get a great deal of it for nothing, simply because country editors let them get by with it. The editor of the Pine River Sentinel-Blaze continues:

"Look through the large city dailies and note the free advertising carried in them. If a little study is made, paid advertising will be found from many of the large companies that are grafting the country press for space and getting it for supplying the plates. And besides, the rates charged in the city dailies would make the ordinary country editor dizzy in comparison to rates he receives even for legal matter.

"The agencies supplying the plates for the large concerns no doubt collect from the advertisers for their trouble and what does the country publisher get? Not even thanks, but is asked to please send a copy of the paper in which the matter appears, so the agency may collect.

"A local paper is asked to donate considerable space to local enterprise during a year's time and does it with the best of grace. Local boosting invariably helps the local paper, but where large outside companies come in and get their advertising free in the guise of news, it's about time the country prints took a little more time to scan their 'news' columns before telling the pressman to go ahead and run off the paper.

NEW IRON ORE DEPOSITS

THE DISPATCH notes with some satisfaction that iron ore explorations have been resumed on the Cuyuna range. It is sweet music to again hear the drills crunching away. The new scene of exploration is near the Kennedy mine at Cuyuna. The mine is the pioneer shipper of the range. We saw the property when the first shaft was sunk, not into rock but into ore, and a new one was subsequently run down.

"Iron ore deposits beneath the bed of Big Rabbit lake, near Cuyuna, which engineers can reach only by cutting through the thick sheet of ice, were called probably the greatest iron ore deposits on the Cuyuna range by Frank A. Wildes, superintendent of the state department of mines," says the Duluth Herald.

"Drilling through the ice, now well advanced, has demonstrated that there is ore in a considerable area beneath the west end of the lake, which may yield 50 to 60 per cent of pure iron. The state expects to collect 50 cents a ton on ore mined, realizing millions of dollars.

"When mining begins, engineers will have to build a dam to cut off the end of the lake where the ore is to be taken, drain off the water and dig in. Engineers believed there was ore to be found beneath the lake and got a lease from the state. Efforts were made to drill for ore, but it was found that it could not be done in summer. Only when it got cold enough so the lake was frozen solid at the west end, could any work be done. The lake is about twenty feet deep at the end.

"Recent cold weather has made drilling possible over a considerable period," Mr. Wildes said, "and tests have demonstrated that good ore is found there."

The problem confronting the mining company will be in damming the lake so that sinking a shaft or extending drifts can be done in comparatively dry ground. Pumpage will offer another problem. The Cuyuna range is noted as being one of the most irregular in strata and deposits and the mining engineer who has been successful on the Cuyuna has gained the experience to cope with any kind of a problem on a sister range.

INFLUENCE OF WASHINGTON AND LINCOLN

"It would be difficult to exaggerate the material effects of the careers of Washington and Lincoln upon the United States," said Theodore Roosevelt in one of his addresses. "Without Washington we should probably never have won our independence of the British crown, and we should almost certainly have failed to become a great nation, remaining instead a cluster of jangling little communities. Without Lincoln we might perhaps have failed to keep the political unity we had won.

"Yet the nation's debt to these men is not confined to what it owes them for its material well-being, incalculable though this debt is. Beyond the fact that we are an independent and united people, with half a continent as our heritage, lies the fact that every American is richer by the heritage of the noble deeds and noble words of Washington and of Lincoln."

A DOCUMENT has been found "signed" by William the Conqueror. William had a good business head, but his chirography was limited to two substantial crosses that he attached to the document. At that, William's "writing" may have been more legible than some of the stuff a country newspaper receives.

EVERY person who has conducted a business in which the extending of credit is practiced, must be impressed with the large percentage of people in the world who appear to be born dead-beats, says the Heron Lake News.

OUR old friend, D. M. Clark, is wintering at Corpus Christi, Texas. During our short siege of below zero weather, D. M. said he got a report that James Cullen's gold fish froze on the dining room table.

MAN in Kansas City, Mo., died of heart disease, induced by over exertion in shoveling snow from his walk. So far no similar deaths have been reported in Brainerd.

"SOME WILD NOTIONS I HAVE KNOWN"

By the REV. ROY L. SMITH, D. D.
Pastor Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis

"STOLEN CHERRIES ARE ALWAYS THE SWEETEST"

This proverb would have us believe that life's sweetest joys and most enduring happiness is that which is taken by stealth, at the expense of other men.

Benedict Arnold, the idol of the American army, betrayed his country to the British for gold with which to pay his gambling debts back in Philadelphia. The price of his betrayal was a large one and might have enabled him to live in luxury for many years, but when the transaction was completed and the money paid, he found that even the British despised him and he ended his days in a London attic in misery and self-loathing.

Judas Iscariot betrayed his Master for thirty pieces of silver and then found his seducers unwilling to even touch the money which he tried to give back to them, and he went and hanged himself.

Tom O'Connor stole a considerable fund, was tried and convicted and then escaped jail. For three years he lived underground like a rat to escape detection and reimprisonment.

A certain American business man "made a cleaning" on the market one day and pocketed thousands of dollars by crooked dealings. But he was unable to enjoy his money, thinking that every man he met might be one of those he had defrauded. He spent the rest of his life trying to escape the sight of friends he had once known.

A country banker embezzled a little more than a hundred thousand dollars of his depositors' money and fled the country. For the next ten years he was a fugitive from justice, unable to return to visit his family, afraid to communicate with any of his former friends, a wanderer upon the face of the earth who looked suspiciously on every man who showed an interest in him lest he be an officer of the law seeking his arrest.

The United States government has a large sum of money accumulated, which has been nicknamed "The Conscience Fund," because it has been made up of contributions from thousands of individuals who had taken that which did not belong to them and found themselves in wretchedness of soul as a consequence.

Stolen cherries are never the sweetest—except at first. They always prove to be bitter.

GHOST OF THE SHENANDOAH

DELAYED LETTER RECEIVED BY LITTLE FALLS MOTHER FROM SON AT LAKEHURST

Little Falls, Minn., Feb. 24—(UP)—The ghost of the Shenandoah hovered over Little Falls today when a letter written by George W. Peterson, an employee of the Lakehurst air station, September 2 and given to a member of the ill-fated crew for posting at Minneapolis, was received by Mrs. Henry Peterson, mother of George.

The letter, which perhaps was found on the body of the bearer, returned to Lakehurst, N. J., and re-addressed to Mrs. Peterson here, bore evidence of its tragic trip.

The Peterson boy said, in part: "The Shenandoah is about to leave for Minneapolis. This letter, which is being carried by a friend, will reach you in a very short time. I am very sorry that I cannot make the trip."

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions. Night and day alike, the sufferer is tormented and what with the burning and scalding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys—have brought peace and comfort to many Brainerd people. Profit by this Brainerd resident's example:

C. N. Sherlund, prop. plumbing business, 312 6th St., says: "My kidneys acted too frequently. I had such severe pains at one time when I bent it was about all I could do to straighten again. There was a dull ache across my kidneys that annoyed me a great deal, too. I used Doan's Pills and they helped me." Price 60c, at all dealers. ## CHANDLER —for Power

Five world's records belong to Chandler—proof conclusive of Chandler's power!

(1) Record for climbing the slopes of Pikes Peak, highest of all automobile climbs, in 17 minutes, 48 2/3 seconds. (2) Record of 1000 miles in 689 minutes, average of 86.9 miles an hour. (3) The high gear climbing record on Mt. Diablo. (4) The climbing record up the Continental Divide. (5) The climbing record on Mt. Washington.

Only last month, a Chandler broke the course record at Muroc Lake, California, by doing a mile in 31.1 seconds, an average of 115.3 miles an hour!

—for Progress

The records just mentioned speak volumes for the progress of Chandler's famous Pikes Peak Motor. Progress is likewise evident in new Chandler body developments, and also in the chassis.

All new Chandlers, for instance, now have the great "One Shot" Lubrication System. Plunge a plunger with your heel—just once—and "One Shot" instantly and thoroughly lubricates the entire chassis!

—for Price

All new Chandler prices represent large reductions. Look at the new Twentieth Century Sedan, now $1590; the new Metropolitan Sedan De Luxe, now $1895; the new Seven-Passenger Sedan, now $1995; the new Brougham, now $1695; all prices f.o.b. Cleveland. Quality now talks price—and Chandler sales reflect tremendous gains in Chandler popularity. See these record-winning new models.

PLANES USED IN PATROL OF COAL FIELDS

TROUBLE AREA NEAR EVANSVILLE, IND., CAUSES APPREHENSION

WIDESPREAD REPORT THAT 400 UNION MINERS AND FRIENDS WERE MOBILIZING

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 24.—(UP)—Planes patrolled southwestern Indiana non-union coal fields today after a widespread report that 400 union miners and sympathizers were mobilizing south of Princeton to march upon the open shop shafts in an attempt to organize the workers.

An influx into Warwick and Vanderburgh counties of automobiles bearing license numbers indicating they were from upstate towns, caused Major L. A. Harriman of Princeton, commanding Indianapolis and Greensburg units of the guard sent here Tuesday, to rout his men from their beds at 5 A. M. and prepare for immediate maneuvers.

As a result, one mine, the Sunny-side, which resumed Tuesday after a week's idleness forced by strife between union and non-union workers, did not attempt to reopen today.

The report, however, was believed baseless. Two national guard airplanes took the air at dawn to patrol the trouble area, carrying machine guns and gas and high explosive bombs. Meantime two companies of guardsmen were held here ready to go to the mines to protect non-union men.

THIEVES TORTURE TO DEATH RICH MAN OF SOUTH BEND

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 24.—(UP)—Thomas Dodge, 50, wealthy real estate owner, was tortured to death over a grate in his room here by thieves seeking to force him to open a safe, police believed today.

Roomers in the house, where Dodge lived, were held for questioning while Coroner Crumpacker started a thorough investigation of the death.

The body of Dodge was found reclining in a chair in his room. Although there were no burns on the clothing, it was found that his body was badly seared and burned.

Seed Corn Situation

E. W. Smith centered his attention at first on the seed corn situation in the state. A wet October last fall destroyed the germination of much of our seed corn. In a test made in 35 counties, samples showed only 62 per cent germination. He urged his hearers to test their seed corn early, and if the germination shows less than 90 per cent vitality, an ear test should be made.

"The reason for the poor corn this year was the excessive amount of moisture in the corn, with an extremely cold fall. Of 17 samples tested in Rice county, only two showed 100 per cent germination, while two showed no germination at all.

"One shipment of seed corn sent to Illinois this year from Clinton, Minn., sold for $10 per bushel. The situation is acute throughout the country."

Mr. Smith also urged his hearers to watch out for smut on oats, barley, rye and wheat. He cited the case of Barnes county, N. D., farmers, who lost $105,000 in one year on account of smut. 35 per cent of their wheat being sold at a reduced price averaging eight cents reduction per bushel.

"The treatment is simple," said Mr. Smith. "One pint of formaldehyde in 40 gallons of water is sufficient. Sprinkle this over the grain with a sprinkling can, shovel the grain till all is moist, shovel into a stack, and cover with blanket, leaving for five hours before using."

"Minnesota produces 1 1/4 tons more of alfalfa hay per acre than of either clover or clover and timothy mixed," said Mr. Smith in supporting his claim that Minnesota farmers should raise more alfalfa. "Every ton is worth at least two tons of wild hay or timothy for dairy feeding. For pastures, sweet clover will carry more than twice the amount of stock compared with timothy or blue grass. The white blossomed sweet clover comes early in the spring, and if fed down or clipped back, it will stay until late in the season. It also leaves the land in rich condition for the production of other crops."

SURGEONS COMPLETE WORK AND TAKE HIM TO SHELTER NEXT DOOR

New York, Feb. 24.—(UP)—Ten children were among the 45 patients rescued early yesterday from the Bay Ridge sanitarium when fire destroyed the interior of the two story frame and stucco structure.

One man was on the operating table when the blaze began but the surgeons completed their work and the patient was wrapped in blankets and taken through a driving snowstorm to the nurses' home next door.

Many of the women in the hospital were maternity cases and police reported that three babies were born during the excitement of the fire. The fire is believed to have started from an overheated furnace.

ALIEN GUNMEN KILL ANOTHER IN CHICAGO TODAY

DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS ARE SPURRED FORWARD BY MURDER

EDWARD BARDELLA IS FOUND WITH THREE BULLETS IN HEAD

Chicago, Feb. 24.—(UP)—Deportation proceedings against Chicago's alien gunmen were spurred forward today by the murder of Edward Bardella, alias Ecola Beldzili, whose body was found in an alley with three bullets in the head.

Bardella was not a Sicilian, according to his father, who said he came from northern Italy and that Edward served in the American army.

Police are working on the theory that alien gunmen are firing on American born Italians in an attempt to intimidate them against turning informers.

LEGION DOG DERBY, BOY AND GIRL DRIVERS

RACE IS SET FOR SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 3 P. M.

ALL BOYS AND GIRLS UNDER 16
ELIGIBLE TO

ALL SLEIGHS MUST BE RIDDEN,
DRAGGING DOG
PROHIBITED

A boys' and girls' dog derby will be the chief order of the day on Saturday, March 6, at 3 p. m., as announced by the American Legion, which is sponsoring the event.

The Legion members worked out some of the details of the derby at their meeting on Monday evening, and further developments will be announced through the Dispatch from time to time.

All boys and girls under 16 years of age are invited to enter. The next week and a half will see a gang of kids training their canine steeds, preparing for the greatest kid outdoor event of the year.

The prime requirement is that all sleighs must be ridden. Dragging a dog and sleigh along at the end of a noose is tabooed, according to the rules laid down by the Legion. Boys and girls are alike eligible to come into the contest, and it is far from unlikely that first honors might be carried off by a member of the frailer sex.

The course will lead down some street yet to be designated. One will be chosen which is comparatively free from traffic, with the contestants riding down the street to a turning point, and back along the same course to the finish.

A committee will be on hand to take care of any dog fights that develop in the heat of the race.

The American Legion drum and bugle corps, the Ladies' band, and the Brainerd Concert band will be out to lend music to the occasion.

Committees named for the event are the following:

Rules—Frank O'Brien.
Track—Walter D. Murphy.
Judge—Mayor George Cain.
Prizes—Andy Gieriet.
Police—Roy Zierke.
Starters—Basil T. Heath.
Publicity—John A. Hoffbauer.
Entries—Alfred Dillan.

All boys and girls wishing to enter the contest are asked to bring or send their entries to the Dispatch office.

IN DEFENSE OF MISTREATED GAME

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 24.—While faculty members and interested moralists are doing their best to over-emphasize the over-emphasis on football, it is pleasing to hear one of the nation's leading scholars come to the defense of a greatly abused and mistreated game.

Addressing the Princeton club at a dinner given recently to pay tribute to the 1925 champions of the "Big Three," Dr. John Grier Hibben, president of the university, said there was no over-emphasis placed upon football at Princeton.

"At Princeton," he said, "we do emphasize football during a particular season, but not at the expense of more serious things, and once football is over we drop it."

They say our boys are to be ruined by the publicity accorded to football but I do not believe it. They did not lose their heads in the games against Yale and Harvard and they are not going to lose them now because of this adulation or later on in life when they leave us.

"Bill Roper is a great football coach but greater than that he is a man. We are grateful to him because in teaching these boys how to play football, he also taught one of the greatest lessons in life—manliness."

Roper said at the dinner that the 1925 team was the greatest that ever represented Princeton—in spite of the fact that Princeton did not win every game on the schedule.

Sentiment of this kind is what has been recommended as a cure for the evils resulting from the tendency of under-grads and alumni to look upon as a failure any team that didn't win every game.

The policy of "victory at any cost" is what caused the early ills of the game when players were recruited without any particular regard to rules or ethics.

In handing out the season's honors for forward passing combinations, perhaps the best pair of the year was overlooked.

Oberlander to Tully, of Dartmouth and Friedman to Oosterbaan, of Michigan were generally regarded as combinations so perfect there could be no choice.

But down south, away from the spotlight, was Hubert and Brown, of Alabama.

They had only one chance to get the eyes of a nation on them, but when they did get the stage against Washington in the Tournament of Roses game, they got one away for 67 yards and another for 40 yards. And against one of the most powerful teams of this year.

NORW.-DANISH 26, EVANGELICAL 14, IN A FAST BATTLE

DANES STAY ON TOP WITH 1000
PER CENT, SIX GAMES WON

The Norwegian-Danish team stayed in the win column in their sixth game of the 8 game schedule, hurling back the onslaughts of the Evangelicals in a 26 to 14 game.

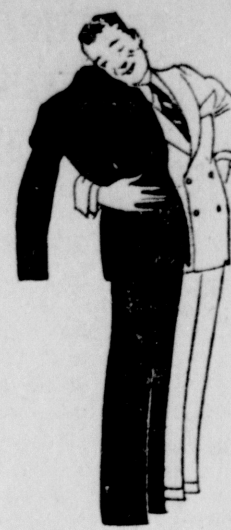

Purdy, center of the Evangelicals, celebrated his return to the fold by scoring 10 points on four field goals and two free throws, but his efforts though valiant, were futile in the face of a regular bombardment on the basket by Satre and Swanson of the Danes.

Satre and Swanson each sank five goals while Lawrenz was netting three. This scoring combination has been coming through with some fine work in all games played thus far, and will undoubtedly put their names high in the scoring columns in their next two games.

The Danes, by winning one more game, either from the Baptists or the Methodists, will gain clear title to the championship. Even by dropping both games, they still will have a tie with the Methodists.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM GUESTS AT ROTARY

Eight Basketball Players And Coach Attend Meeting Yesterday With Members

PRESIDENT WOODHEAD SPEAKS
Presides at His Last Meeting as Member of Brainerd Club, Was Charter Member

The high school basketball team was entertained at the weekly meeting of the Rotary club Tuesday, eight members of the team and their coach being guests of members of the club. This was in recognition of their efforts to provide fast clean basketball this year, and a reminder that the men of the club were behind them in their attempt to win the district championship.

President John F. Woodhead of the club was in charge of the meeting for his last time, as he has sold his business in this city, and will leave soon for Minneapolis. He addressed the club on the subject, "The Future of Rotary in Brainerd." He spoke of the Boy Scout drive soon to come, stressing the fact that this is a moral, as well as a financial obligation.

"The future development of Brainerd will depend on the spirit with which we go into our business and civic life. In the ten last years Brainerd has risen from a town of sand streets to a fine city of paved boulevards, with paved or gravelled highways connecting us with the surrounding territory. Our new depot, waterworks, paper mill, power plant, and lake properties speak well for the future."

The speaker asserted that Brainerd has a hopeful future.

Walter F. Wieland addressed the club on the sixth object of Rotary, the development of understanding, good will, and international peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men joined in the Rotary ideal of service. Rotary now has representation in every civilized country in the world, with over 2,300 clubs organized.

W. C. Cobb announced the coming of Major Hill to speak at the local high school today.

An expression was made by a number of Rotarians regarding the work of the Boy Scouts here, and S. R. Adair spoke a few words regarding the financing of the movement for the coming year.

Guests of the club included Kent Whitlock, guest of Wilbur Cobb, Leland Avery, guest of Bob Campbell, Richard Marshall, guest of Mons Mahlum, John Tribur, guest of Dan Whitney, Oscar Lawrence, guest of Joe Cibuzar, William Fitzharris, guest of Gil Chadbourne, William Lowe, guest of his father, George Lowe, Calvin Orth, guest of Sam Adair, Coach Clinton Beresford, guest of Alfred Dillan, and W. P. Tyrholm, guest of John F. Woodhead. Rev. "Nye" Olmsted acted as chairman of the fellowship committee and introduced the visitors.

LENGLEN MAY MEET WILLS AT NICE TOURNNEY

SOME BETS OF 5 TO 3 OFFERED ON THE FRENCH STAR

BELIEVE YOUTHFUL YANKEE STAR IS INCREASING IN CONFIDENCE

Monte Carlo, Feb. 24.—(UP)—Accepting by the word of her father that she will play in the Nice tournament starting March 8, tennis authorities are discussing another match between Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen and Miss Helen Wills.

Some bets have been offered at 5 to 3 on the French star and a few at even money. The change in sentiment as represented in the betting is the result of the opinion that the first meeting between the two stars increased the confidence of the young American champion and reduced that of the French star.

Officials of the Nice club are preparing now to accommodate what is certain to be a record crowd, a contract for a new stand costing 40,000 francs has been let and work will start in a few days, it was reported here today.

Although she won her first match yesterday against Mrs. Marriot in love sets, Miss Wills did not greatly impress the critics and the opinion was expressed that she was not on her best game.

Miss Wills, Frau Neppach, the German champion, and Miss Sileen Bennett, England, remain in the upper half of the singles and Senorita D'Alvarez Mrs. E. Harvey, Mlle. Henrietta Costantinos and Mrs. Phyllis Satterthwaite survive in the lower half.

Unless some surprise occurs before the final round, Miss Wills and Mrs. Satterthwaite are expected to meet for the championship.

MISS WILLS ASKS POSTPONING DOUBLES

Monte Carlo, Feb. 24.—Fearing that her condition was becoming "too fine" from five weeks of almost continuous play, Helen Wills, young American tennis champion, asked officials of the tournament here for a postponement of the doubles match in which she was scheduled today. Permission was granted.

RAINBOWS START HARD WEEK OF GAMES TONIGHT

PLAY FOUR GAMES IN FOUR DAYS THIS WEEK, ONE AT HOME

LITTLE FALLS TONIGHT, AITKIN, ISLE AND DULUTH ARE OPPONENTS

The Rainbows start tonight their series of four hard games, which will wind up on Saturday night when they face the tough French Athletic club of Duluth in a return game at the Brainerd gym.

Tonight the team travels to Little Falls for a game there with the strong city team. The Rainbows came through the first meeting of these teams last week for a 21 to 11 victory. The regulars will be held in reserve in tonight's game, being saved for the Aitkin game tomorrow.

The Aitkin game will be one of the hardest the team has been called upon to play this year. They will send their strongest five into that game. Aitkin is rated one of the fastest teams in this section of the state, and a win over them is something to be worth every effort.

Friday night the team goes to Isle, on the south end of Mille Lacs lake, for a game with their city team.

Saturday night the Duluth French Athletic club comes here for a game sure to prove a good windup for the season's schedule. In the first meeting of these teams, the Rainbows, minus two regulars, went down to a 28 to 18 defeat at Duluth, but the entire team will play Saturday, and all are in fine shape for the ordeal.

SEEKS JAIL SENTENCE FOR MOONSHINERS

Washington, Feb. 24.—(UP)—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews will recommend to congress this week that legislation be passed making jail sentences compulsory for convicted moonshiners, bootleggers and others trafficking in liquor, it was learned today.

Andrews, it was said, will urge congress to change the statutes reading "fine or imprisonment" to "fine and imprisonment."

Courts would be allowed to suspend sentences where the facts of the case warranted such action. But this system would put the bootlegger on parole and should he be convicted a second time the penalty would be twice as severe.

PRESIDENT'S SON LOSES BOXING BOUT

Amherst, Mass., Feb. 24.—(UP)—President Coolidge's son, John, fought a three round boxing bout in the Amherst college tournament here and lost to A. Silverman of Waterbury. John had entered the tournament in the 135 pound class.

WARN AMERICAN LEAGUE HURLERS FROM RESIN BAGS

ALSO TOLD NOT TO MAKE A TEST OF THE NEW RULE

AMENDMENT TO FREAK PITCHING RULE HAS BEEN ADOPTED

By HENRY L. FARRELL (United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 24.—American League pitchers will be warned from headquarters before the new season starts to stay away from resin bags and not to make a test of the new rule, it was learned today.

The amendment to the freak pitching rule permitting pitchers to rub resin on their hands under the supervision of the umpire, was passed by a vote of Commissioner Landis at the joint meeting of the rules committee, but the American League refused to accept it.

As a result the rule book says it is legal for a pitcher to use resin and the American League says it cannot be done.

It was pointed out when the American League magnates voted that a pitcher could force a test case that would have to be passed upon by the commissioner.

Any American League pitcher could rub his hand with resin and if the umpire penalized him by putting him out of the game he could ask for a rule book, show the umpire where it was no offense and appeal to the commissioner.

In the circumstances the commissioner could do nothing but support the pitcher and rule against the umpire. This would result in a serious controversy.

When the joint rules committee was considering the change in the rule the National League representatives voted for it and the American League representatives opposed it.

Commissioner Landis and the delegate from the minor leagues voted in favor of it and broke the deadlock.

If a test case made an issue of it, the commissioner hardly could reverse himself and he would be forced to give a decision against the umpire.

The American League club owners, realizing this, have decided to pass out word to the pitchers that it would not be well for them to start anything that would put them in a position where the commissioner could show his authority again.

BAD BREAKS IN SOME RAIL STOCKS

New York, Feb. 24.—(UP)—Bad breaks in several low priced railroad shares precipitated further selling in the general market today. News that foreclosure proceedings would be started against the Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic railroad in the next few days with the likelihood that such a step would leave no assets for the stock, caused an abrupt 50 per cent loss in less than an hour, the stock dropping from 8½ to 3½.

Chicago & Alton issues also fell sharply due to apprehension regarding the possibility of a $16 assessment on both the common and preferred stock. With speculative sentiment in nervous condition over these manifestations of weakness professionals were successful in bringing about a resumption of the downward movement in the whole market. However, better support was encountered in the last hour and rallying tendencies developed in many departments before the close.

The market closed irregular.
